Action

Chairman

Parish Clerk

007.17.C Highway MattersAction

The Chairman reported that there had been two accidents in the village due to the recent icy road conditions, one at the 'T' junction in Stanton as you approach the village from Moreton Corbet which had damaged the sign post and one just over the bridge towards Moreton Corbet. Again Cllr's stressed the need for the damaged salt bin to be replaced on the bank leading up to Stanton and suggested an article in the parish magazine asking for volunteers to come forward to assist in spreading this salt on the roads in this area during icy conditions.

Parish Clerk

Cllr Douglas
Dee

Cllr Claire Crackett reported that following concerns expressed by the PCC over dog waste in the churchyard, they had agreed that a post against the wall in the churchyard with a bracket over hanging the wall on the right hand side would be the most appropriate position. Shropshire Council would be asked to approve this location.

Parish Clerk

Flooding at Yew Tree Villa, double white lines re-instated along the A53 just before the Blakeley/High Hatton cross roads to the junction for Ellerdine were still outstanding.

Parish Clerk

Cllr Greg Shaw reported a blocked gully in High Hatton between the junction and notice board.
