THANK YOU to all who helped with and supported the recent concert with Of One Accord. It was a very enjoyable evening, with all the tickets sold, so it was nice for them to be able to sing to a packed church.

3 New Years Resolutions You Might Actually Keep

1 : Train Yourself To Wake Up Without an Alarm Clock

Yes, you can stop being a slave to your alarm clock. And it's easier than you think. Your body wants to wake up in the morning (naturally), you just need to harness the power of your natural circadian rhythm, and put in your side of the bargain: consistency and trust.

2. Plan Your Weekends to Relax and Revitalize

It's Sunday night. You're miserable. You haven't done anything this weekend! If this is a familiar feeling, you're not alone. Bottom line: a good weekend needs a plan.

3. Finish a Project You're Proud Of

Whether it's that DIY remodel of your bathroom or that scrap book lying in your closet still unassembled, set aside some time and do it!

A Christmas Reminder From Our Local Emergency Services

As we rapidly approach the end of 2014, I felt it timely to wish you all a safe and peaceful Christmas.

The SNT will be on hand throughout should you have any problems, please call 101 or 999 in an emergency.

A Christmas Thought from the Editor

Christmas can be a truly wonderful time of year for many of us, with family gatherings, good food and good company (and perhaps the occasional argument!). However it's also important for us to take stock and remember those who can't be with us or their families this year and those who we always miss that little bit more this time of year.

That being said there are a lot of other people who aren't so fortunate, who don't have the same love and support that we've enjoyed and who need our care that little bit more when Christmas comes around. So please, if you have the time to visit someone who you think would really appreciate having a cup of tea and a natter with someone, then do. You can always record the Dr Who Christmas special and they show Chicken Run every year anyway so you're not missing too much. Alternatively, charities such as AgeUK and Samaritans are doing extraordinary work this time of year, and of course all year round, so please offer them any support that you can. Be that unwanted jumpers donated to charity shops or a direct donation of your time or money.

Finally I'd like to wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year and I'll see you all next year, for more of the latest from Stanton-upon-Hine-Heath & High Hatton.

Thanks,

Ed.
