Village Hall News

Coffee Morning

The coffee morning was a great success with standing room only at the end. It was great to see so many people from the village and further afield socialising in a nice informal atmosphere. The cake stall and raffle did exceptionally well and the whole event made £185.90 for the Hall. Our grateful thanks go to everyone who attended and in particular those who donated cakes and raffle prizes and those who helped on the day.

Neighbourhood Natter - Thursday 5th March at 10.30.

The first Neighbourhood Natter went very well indeed with around a dozen people attending.
Everyone is welcome to come and join in with this informal get together.

Saturday 14th March - Family Quiz with Fish & Chip Supper - Doors open 5.30 for 6pm start.

This is a great opportunity for families and friends to do something together.

Tickets with Supper of Fish or Sausage & Chips £5.50. Entrance and quiz only £2. (Under 12 free entrance).

To help us determine numbers for catering tickets must be purchased by Monday 9th March, so please pick up the phone NOW and get yours.

No smart phones allowed, only brains! So get them into gear now and think of a really great team name. Licensed Bar and Raffle.

Tickets available from: Sue 250194
Natalie 251005 Jane 251187.

Reminder from Village Hall Commit- tee

Please note that the car park at the Village Hall is only for the use of people attending events at the Hall. Thank you.

Last but not least we would welcome new members to our committee. We are a small and ageing (sorry gang) committee and need more help. Please contact a member of the committee if you are able to help. It is only a small commitment each year.
