Royal Navy Links to Shropshire

There have been three recorded HMS Shrewsbury's
The first was a three-decker 80-gun second rate ship of the line of the Royal Navy, launched at Portsmouth Dockyard on 6 February 1695.

In the British Royal Navy, a second rate was a ship of the line which by the start of the 18th century mounted 90 to 98 guns on three gun decks; earlier 17th-century second rates had fewer guns and were originally two-deckers or had only partially armed third gun decks. The term in no way implied that they were of inferior quality. They were essentially smaller and hence cheaper versions of the three-decker first rates. Like the first rates, they fought in the line of battle, but unlike the first rates, which were considered too valuable to risk in distant stations, the second rates often served also in major overseas stations as flagships. They had a reputation for poor handling and slow sailing. Shrewsbury narrowly escaped destruction on the Goodwin Sands during the Great Storm on 26 November 1703. She was rebuilt according to the 1706 Establishment at Deptford Dockyard, and was relaunched on 12 August 1713. The Shrewsbury was part of Vice-Admiral Edward Vernon's fleet and took part in the expedition to Cartagena de Indias during the War of Jenkin's Ear.

Shrewsbury continued in service until 1749, when she was broken up.

The second HMS Shrewsbury was a 74-gun third rate ship of the line of the Royal Navy, launched on 23 February 1758 at Deptford. In 1783, she was condemned and scuttled.

The third HMS Shrewsbury was a Hunt class minesweeper launched in 1918 and sold in 1927.

There was an HMS *Shrewsbury Castle, a Castle class Minesweeper built by Swann Hunters in 1943. She was transferred to Norway on completion and renamed HNoMS Tunberg Castle and sunk by mine 12 December 1944.

The most famous ship however was HMS *Shropshire which was a heavy cruiser of the London sub-class of County-class cruisers armed with 8 inch guns. Amongst her crew for a time in the Mediterranean was Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh. She is the only warship to have been named after Shropshire. Completed in 1929, Shropshire served with the RN until 1942, when she was transferred to the Royal Australian Navy (RAN) following the loss of her sister ship HMAS Canberra. Commissioned as HMAS *Shropshire, the ship remained in RAN service until 1949.

Motorcycle Rider Weekend—13-14 August 2016

RAF Shawbury will be hosting a motorcycle rider weekend 13-14 August 2016. The aim of the event is to allow drivers to hone their riding skills, with advice from motorcycle instructors. The event will also make contributions to several charities, including the RAF Shawbury nominated charities, SANDS and Shrewsbury Ark. In addition a donation will be made to both Shawbury and Stanton Parish Councils. There will be a retail and entertainments area available and those living within 2 miles of RAF Shawbury are invited to come and spectate free of charge.

Moreton Mill Methodist Chapel

A huge thank you to everyone who supported our recent concert which raised £320 each for the Air Ambulance and Cancer Research. It was a truly enjoyable and uplifting evening with performance from two very talented musicians.

West Mercia Police - Safer Neighbourhood Team

Safer Neighbourhood Teams work with local people and partners to identify, tackle and solve issues that matter to the community where you live.

Making neighbourhoods safer by cutting day to day crime and anti-social behaviour is at the heart of keeping people in West Mercia safe. Thanks to an investment in mobile tablet style computers, these will enable officers to spend more time on patrol on the street and in neighbourhoods.

Officers will continue to come to people when they need them and provide a high quality service however you contact us - in person (on the street, at community bases and at partners and communities together [PACT] meetings), on the phone or online.
